I'd like to inform you of a new initiative starting this year in Greenville that will be of benefit to your business and the surrounding community. We are beginning the first annual Arts Around Greenville Studio Tour on July 23rd and 24th from 11-5. There will also be a kick off extravaganza art show at Prevost Hall, right next to the Greenville Library from 6-9 on Friday, July 8th. These tours can bring hundreds (and in many cases thousands) of people into the area to discover what great places there are to see, eat in, shop at, and visit in our county. Community Partners of Greenville (CPOG) is the supporting non-profit for the studio tour. CPOG is responsible for other free events like Greenville Day and the Tuesday night Concert Series. CPOG is encouraging the use of Prevost Hall, the community center and historic building next to the Greenville Library, which will be the venue for a month-long art exhibit from July 8-30th open from 11-5 Saturdays and Sundays and from 6-8 Tuesdays- as part of this project.

We are providing a plethora of promotions, including printed maps, cards, and signs, social media, tourism information locations, radio, newspapers, arts groups, and other sources. We have 22 artists and 15 local businesses already invested and sponsoring our endeavor. Our web site is designed to attract attention as we use it to promote local artists and businesses along with other arts happenings in the area.

We are covering a radius of 15 miles from Greenville and are focusing on supporting local artists, as well as showcasing local businesses that tour goers would frequent while on tour and in the future. As a local business, this will be a win-win and you can be a part of this in a number of low cost ways, with all donations going to a local Not for Profit organization (CPOG).

On the next page are several options to take advantage of this opportunity for exposure, to attract new customers, and to support your community!
